EAST VALLEY DUI TASK FORCE

The Arizona Department of Public Safety will be hosting tonight's East Valley DUI Task Force which will involve officers from twelve different law enforcement agencies through-out the central and east valley. This marks the twentieth year that valley agencies have combined their resources to help make the holidays safe for Arizona motorist.

The command post for tonight's operation will be located in the parking lot of the East Valley Bible Church located at 1820 W. Elliott Road in Gilbert, Arizona. (East of Arizona Avenue) Command and control vehicles as well as mobile testing and booking facilities will be located at the command post. Officer's who apprehend suspected impaired drivers will bring them to this location for processing. The briefing will take place at approximately 7:00p.m.

The media is welcome and will be accommodated at tonight's event. If requested, rides with officers during their patrols will also be facilitated. We urge you to come out and help get the message out to the public that if you drink this holiday season don't drive.

Don't Drink and Drive!

Buckle Up!
